Dear Mr. Getz:

Thank you for your letter addressed to Mr. Helms,
the Director of Central Intelligence.

I regret that we cannot be of assistance to you.
As a "silent service" of your government we do not engage in what are usually accepted as standard public relations activities and practices, nor do we publish any material for the public.

I am enclosing a small pamphlet which I trust will enable you to have a clearer understanding of our duties
and responsibilities as established by law.

Your interest in this Agency is appreciated.

Sincerely, Sincerely,

/ Assistant to the Director
